- CMCK Training -

Due to limited availability and the intimate nature of our training, no transfer options or refunds will be given. All deposit monies are non-refundable. In the event of the organisers having to cancel the event, a full refund minus your deposit will be given.

Please note to graduate from the CMCK training, full attendance of all weekends plus all course work must be completed and marked. CMCK training is mainly experiential, students will be given feedback on their progress throughout training. The student is responsible for attendance, note taking and training using the material taught on the course. If for any reason you miss any course time you will be offered an opportunity to catch up on the material covered. There will be a additional charge for this which will depend on the venue and number of hours catch up time required.

Bookings received less than 3 days before the training start date cannot be transferred or any credit given.

Each situation is considered separately so if you have extenuating circumstances beyond your control, please drop me a line at sbsdaniel@yahoo.co.uk

Please note that we do NOT automatically give refunds; unless a training has been cancelled by Conscious Movement Chi Kung training
